PRINCELIKE DISQUALIFIED

MONCRIEF PARK JUDGES TAKE PURSE AWAY FROM CHINN HORSE.

Offense Was Cutting Across Other Contenders and Causing a Jam at Start of Race—Interesting Rulings Given Out by Judges in Two Cases.

Jacksonville, Fla., January 18.—The first disqualification of the Moncrief Park meeting came with the running of the closing race this afternoon, when Princelike was set back for fouling. The start in this race was at the sixteenth post and Princelike cut across to the inner rail, causing a jam, in which My Gal, among others, was all but thrown. Princelike showed a good performance and finally beat Edwin L. a length. The judges promptly took the purse from Princelike, and the change in the placing gave first place to Edwin L., second to Falcada and third to Merman.

It was a disastrous day for the followers of favorites, all six choices going down to defeat. A majority of the races furnished close finishes, with the winners in three instances first home by a head or a neck. A drop in the temperature made the grandstand anything but a comfortable spot and overcoats and wraps were decidedly in order.

The stewards handed down their decision in the Peep Over-Elmeta Hamilton race, and upheld the protest of M. Preston, awarding the purse to Elmeta Hamilton. The ruling is as follows: "In the matter of the protest filed by M. Preston against the payment of the purse won by Peep Over on January 12, on the ground that the horse was not a maiden, we have decided to sustain the protest. This will make the official placing of the horses, Elmeta Hamilton first, Mason second and Song of Rocks third. While we clear owner W. E. Suggs of any criminal intent in the matter, we at the same time believe that his gross carelessness should be punished and assess a fine of $50. Unsubstantiated reports have come to us of certain threats made by Suggs against horsemen at the track. A warning is issued to all horsemen that we will promptly rule off any one guilty of such practices."

Another interesting case developed during the day. W. F. Cisco, former owner of the three-year-old, White Wool, protested that Sam Louis, who claimed the colt, was not the real owner of Fort Worth, his representative in the race in question. The stewards did not sustain his claim and Cisco immediately resorted to the courts. The following ruling in reference to the matter was handed out after the races: "We have been served through Sam Louis, the owner of White Wool, with papers from the court enjoining him from starting the horse. While we have not been served directly, we take it to be the will of the court that the horse shall not start and have excused it from the third race today. The action has grown out of the recent claiming of the horse. We have already passed on the validity of the claim, subject to appeal to your stewards. As you know we assume arbitrary jurisdiction over those who voluntarily place themselves within that jurisdiction. W. F. Cisco, the former owner of the colt, and the person bringing the present action by subscribing to the race from which the horse was claimed, agreed to abide by the decisions of your properly constituted court and thus voluntarily placed himself within its jurisdiction. Without availing himself of the privilege of an appeal to your stewards Mr. Cisco has not only embarrassed your association with a legal action but has clogged the calendar of the court with a question which your two courts are perfectly competent to pass on. There are a number of decisions from the courts of last resort that where we do not conflict with the common law we are a court within ourselves of common jurisdiction. Armed with this authority you have incorporated in the rules of the Southern Jockey Club a provision that persons resorting to legal procedure shall be barred from all privileges of your tracks in cases where we are competent to act. While the question involves property rights, it is in our opinion a racing question pure and simple, and we believe Mr. Cisco has violated the spirit and intent of rule 28 of the Southern Jockey Club, and you will kindly reclaim his stalls, cancel his badge and deny him the privilege usually accorded horsemen."

The matter of whether Guy Gray will be required to turn Peep Over back to W. E. Suggs will be passed on tomorrow.

Jockey T. Koerner, who arrived from Tampa this morning, had six mounts today and landed one of them, Aldrian, a winner.

Col. W. H. Haldeman, of Louisville, was a visitor at Moncrief this afternoon. He is on his way to southern Florida on a fishing trip.

James Ross, secretary of the Kentucky Association track at Lexington, arrived this morning. He is here in the interests of the stakes offered by his association and will remain for several days.

Patronage continues highly satisfactory and the sport appears more popular than ever with the Floridians.

Aldrian equaled the track record of 1:20⅘ for six and a half furlongs in winning the third race today.

Manager Brown is counting on carding some more novelty races, in view of their great popularity with local race-goers.

CALIFORNIA HEARING TODAY.

T. H. Williams and Other Friends of Racing to Appear Before Legislative Committee.

San Francisco, Cal., January 18.—Arasee came back and ran another brilliant race at Oakland today in beating Eddie Dale a neck in the Gilead Handicap. Roy Junior set the pace, but was caught by Eddie Dale in the stretch. Arasee moved up on the inside in the worst going and won in a drive. Jockey Garner, who rode Eddie Dale, made a claim of interference, saying that Glass put his hands on him while they were in close quarters. The claim was not allowed. The defeats of Dublin Minstrel and Tender Bloom in the second and third races were expensive to favorite followers. Clara W. carried the colors of Barney Schreiber to victory in the first race at odds of 12 to 1.

M. C. Pritchard shipped Spellbound and Seymour Beutler in a freight car to Juarez.

Thomas H. Williams and other friends of racing will appear before the Public Morals Committee of the state senate at Sacramento tomorrow to speak against the Walker-Young bill, which is intended to prohibit oral wagering. It is understood that A. B. Spreckels, who is at Sacramento, has a bill which would legalize the pari-mutuel system of betting and that Charles Boots and others are favoring the introduction of a measure for a state racing commission.

Jockey Shilling has returned from Texas, but no action has been taken in his case.

R. J. Mackenzie has returned from Winipeg, where he went on a business trip. Dunc Campbell and John Vassar, two of his railroad associates, accompanied him.

L. Post has arrived from Pasadena with Beclise, Birth, Sophomore and Mechant.

MOCKLER TAKES JUAREZ FEATURE.

Jockey Kennedy Again in Winning Form—Patronage of Pari-Mutuel Machines Increasing.

El Paso, Tex., January 18.—Despite a card of ordinary quality a fair-sized crowd attended the races at Juarez today. The feature, a race for three-year-olds, at seven furlongs, was won by Mockler, from the stable of J. C. Cahn.

Mose Newman joined the ranks of the layers today.

Jockey Kennedy, who has not been seen in the saddle for some time, rode a winner in the third race today, by outriding the boy on Gene Wood, which looked a certain winner at the paddock.

The boy on Du Bois lost a stirrup in the fifth race when seemingly a winner.

The success of only one favorite today afforded relief to the layers, who have had a hard time of it lately.

During the last two weeks patronage of pari-mutuel machines at Juarez has picked up to such an extent that the devices are now being run at a profit to the Jockey Club Juarez and are daily becoming more popular.

ACCIDENTAL SUBSTITUTION IN FRANCE.

It is rather strange that there should have been in France lately two cases of the accidental substitution of horses. Only two or three weeks ago a two-year-old ran in place of a three-year-old and actually won, which certainly shows that he must have been smart. There could be no doubt that this was a pure mistake, and the same thing has happened again. Trainer P. Lynham lately took over some two-year-olds belonging to Frank Jay Gould, and ran a filly called Vincenette, by Childwick, instead of another daughter of the same horse named Tirelire. Vincenette was second in a race at Longchamps and had run for other stakes, figuring in the card as Tirelire. How the blunder was discovered a brief account of the incident does not state, but Mr. Gould has had to refund the money he received for running second with the wrong horse and his trainer has been fined $500. Commenting on the subject, a writer wants to know what guarantee exists that horses may not be fraudulently changed, when such mistakes occur in good faith? There is probably no guarantee, but similar mistakes are exceedingly improbable—wilfully made, that is—because it is wonderful how many people on a racecourse have an eye for a horse and recognize animals with really something approaching to infallibility. "Ringing" is an exceedingly dangerous trick to attempt nowadays, on any well-regulated course, and so many persons would have to be concerned in a fraudulent attempt that it is a practical impossibility to keep it secret.—Toronto Globe.

TAMPA JUDGES TAKE JOCKEYS TO TASK.

Tampa, Fla., January 18.—Today's ordinary card furnished mediocre sport and was witnessed by a slim attendance. Allowmaise and Grenade were the only winning choices. Rough riding was directly responsible for Ben Sand's failure in the third. The judges cautioned jockey Pickett for a listless ride on Robert Bruce.

A. G. Blum, of Mexico, who some time ago came under the ban of the Mexican Jockey Club, is here to purchase cheap horses for sale purposes. He secured options on Kentucky Rose, Fenrir, W. F. Stovall and Orena.

Owner J. Bryan contemplates instituting suit against the railroad for $5,000 because of injuries received in a wreck while on his way to Pensacola.

Jockeys Hoffman, Jackson and Griffin were each fined $25 by the starter and Pryor and Martin were suspended three days for disobedience at the post.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Fred Taral has abandoned his plans for a trip abroad to train for Count Pechy of Vienna and will make application to the Jockey Club for a license to train in this country.

Superintendent James P. Ross of the Kentucky Association track, has left Lexington for a two weeks trip to Tampa and Jacksonville in the interest of the stakes for the Lexington spring meeting.

Former State Senator Owen Cassidy, who was one of the foremost republican opponents of the Hart-Agnew bill in the New York legislature of 1908, died at his home in Watkins, N. Y., a few days ago.

NEW TRACK FOR SALT LAKE CITY.

Reports from Salt Lake City, which municipality put the Buena Vista track out of business with an ordinance prohibiting bookmaking, are to the effect that lumber already has been placed on the grounds at Lagoon, where it is proposed to build a track outside the city limits. Plans have been perfected so that work can be started immediately upon the adjournment of the legislature, in the event that no hostile legislation is enacted. It is said that little fear is entertained that there will be any adverse legislation at this session. Richard Dwyer will be the manager of the meeting if one is held.

WHITNEY STABLE NOW IN ENGLAND.

The Whitney stable in England, formidable and successful last year, has been so reinforced that it promises to be even a greater obstacle in the pathway of its rivals this year. Its division of three-year-olds has been greatly added to by Bashti, Iron Mask, Matinee and Pique Dorna being sent over from this country. Of these, Iron Mask is in the Two Thousand Guineas, Epsom Derby, Doncaster St. Leger, Princess of Wales Stakes and the Grand Prix de Paris, engagements that make such a tried good colt an especially valuable acquisition to the stable. Bashti's only engagement when bought by Mr. Whitney was in the Epsom Oaks, but a great many rich and important events close in January and it will probably be known presently that she has been well engaged in these. Matinee is a sister to the stable's crack four-year-old, Whisk Broom. She has no engagements in England, but that will no doubt be remedied this month. Pique Dorna is a chestnut filly by Riley—Queen of Hearts that showed such extraordinary speed in private that it was decided to send her to England to race in engagements that could still be made for her. This quartet added to Borrow, Lady Frivoles filly, Blue Girl filly, Dame d'Or colt, Hardyburg and First Flight makes the stable well fortified with three-year-olds. The five-year-old Perseus and the four-year-olds Whisk Broom and New Castle and Witchwork constitute its elder division. The two-year-olds are twenty-two in number and they represent about the best this country can do in the way of high-class breeding. That some stars will come from their number is not to be doubted. In all Jack Joyner will have the following horses under his skillful management for the campaign of 1911:

Perseus, ch. h, 5, by Persimmon—Urania.
Whisk Broom, ch. c, 4, by Broomstick—Audience.
